

Panel Discussion & Online Book Launch

Monday 29 March 2021, 7pm to 8pm AEDT

What is an ethical city? What issues and challenges do cities face and how can they be resolved with ethical solutions? Hosted by the Centre for Urban Research, RMIT University and the Center for the Study of Co*Design, Osaka University, please join us for an interdisciplinary discussion of ethical principles key to the pursuit of socially inclusive and sustainable urban futures.

This event celebrates the publication of Ethical Cities. It also marks the launch of the Ethical Cities: Shaping the Future of Your City Massive Open Online Course with FutureLearn from 29 March.

Chair

Professor Jago Dodson,
Director, Centre for Urban
Research, RMIT University

Keynotes

Professor Mitsuho Ikeda, Director, Center for the Study of Co*Design, Osaka University

Emeritus Professor Mike Berry, Centre for Urban Research, RMIT University

Panellists

- ▶ Dr. Andrew Hollows, Executive
General Manager, Launch Housing
- ▶ Professor Brad Hooker, Ethical Reading, University of Reading
- ▶ Associate Professor Wendy Steele,
Sustainability and Urban Planning,
RMIT University

Authors

Specially Appointed Professor Brendan Barrett (FRSA),
Center for the Study of Co*Design, Osaka University

Professor Ralph Horne, Deputy Pro-Vice Chancellor, Research and Innovation, College of Design and Social Context, RMIT University

Professor John Fien, School of Architecture and Urban Design, RMIT University

Register here

